

Madison Public Arts Commission
June 3, 2022 @ 4:00 pm
Minutes

- Call to order at 4:00 pm by Tony Steinhardt. Members include Commission currently includes Greg Goodknight, Kim Nyberg, Eric Phagan and Tracy Wyne with a 5th vacant seat.
- Minutes Approval: - NONE
- Claims Approval: - NONE
- Old Business: - NONE
- New Business:
 - Mayor Courtney stated that he was excited to have the Public Arts Commission first meeting. He believes that these Commission members are willing to serve and do something that is pioneering. The main goal of the Commission is to draft public art guidelines for Council Approval and once that is in place they will serve as a an advisory for the broader community.
 - Steinhardt will be the City's liaison to the Public Commission. He stated that Economic Development is about attracting people to our community just as much as it is about new employees. Public art plays an important role in placemaking which is key in todays environment to attract talent. He stated that there are many projects coming up that will include public art, such as the Sunrise Crossing Development and the Gateway.
- Motion to elect Kim Nyberg as Chair by Goodknight, 2nd by Phagan; all voted in favor.
- Motion to adjourn by Phagan, 2nd by Wyne; all voted in favor.
- The next meeting is Tuesday, July 7th, 2022 @ 4:00 pm.

Kim Nyberg, Chair