

Madison Human Relations Commission

November 30, 2017

Minutes

The meeting was called to order by Bob Canida. Members present were Allen Watson, Chris Albers, Shirley Kloepfer, Nathan Montoya, Bob Pimlott, and Bob Canida. Minutes were read and approved.

Bob Canida reviewed the proposed terms of service outlined in the August 10, 2017 minutes. The attached list of terms of service was added by amendment to those minutes and approved by unanimous vote.

A discussion of One Book/One Community was held. Judge Ted Todd spoke about the book "Just Mercy," the book that will be used for the One Book/One Community activity. The committee discussed how the book could benefit our community. Nathan discussed the possibility of the author being invited to speak locally. Judge Todd agreed to participate in a discussion of the book and is willing to help put a forum together. Specific dates for the forum will be determined at a later date.

Commission members talked about DACA and Casa Amiga. Appreciation was expressed to Shirley for all her work with Casa Amiga.

Discussion of the City of Madison becoming a Compassionate City was held. The next step will be to contact Mayor Welch and discuss the possibility.

Commission discussed and expressed support of a revised non-discrimination policy for the employees of the City of Madison.

The next meeting date will be Thursday February 8th at 9am.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:11am.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert L. Pimlott

Secretary pro tem
